

Anchorage Daily News

Young vote earns a vote

I have been equally disappointed in the Republican and Democratic leadership in Washington during the past eight years.

One bright spot in the Republican party was the vote against the $700 billion bailout by Rep. Don Young. That vote against the administration and the Wall Street tycoons took a great deal of courage and common sense.

Don has my vote for re-election.

-- Norman Jensen

Anchorage